

Boston Junior Terriers is a historic organization spanning over 40 years. Having produced countless NHL, Pro, D1 and D3 athletes over the years. Our Junior team is in its first year and having tremendous success in the EHL. We are looking for an associate head coach to step up and join our team this spring for the preparations going into next season. Opportunity for additional role as our academy assistant general manager as well can be discussed.

Responsibilities (not limited to)-

1. Attending all practices and home/away games-
2. Collaborating with the head coach on practice plans and game strategies-
3. Ability to run practices for players-
4. Break down and run film for players and the team-
5. Focus on special teams, powerplay and penaltykill-
6. Focus on skill and player development-
7. Building a relationship with the players-
8. Ability to recruit players-
9. Help players contact colleges and advance plays-
10. Background in strength and conditioning preferred but not mandatory-

Qualifications:-

1. Playing experience at the junior/collegiate level-
2. Coaching experience at the AAA, Junior or collegiate/ pro level-
3. Connections to college/ tier I junior programs-
4. Desire to help players on and off the ice-
5. Strong communication skills with the players, coach and owner-
6. Assist players off the ice with academics-
7. Proficient in video breakdown and cutting film(InStat)-
8. Willing to relocate to Canton/Braintree Ma (housing may be available for right candidate)S

Pay is dependent on experience and qualifications.