

Prime Hockey – Director of Player Development

Prime Hockey is looking for a Director of Player Development for their Midwest United States locations and specifically Minnesota. Prime Hockey trains athletes and associations year-round through various programs and skill development contracts.

Responsibilities:

- Managing the overall day to day on and off ice activities for multiple training programs
- Communicating with parents and athletes in a fun and positive way
- Running fun and challenging on-ice sessions
- Run daily skills and player development sessions
- Recruit players for multiple summer programs and teams
- Additional evening and weekend coaching opportunities for those interested
- Housing available for the right candidates

Pay is based on experience and opportunity to grow the training programs. Pay range is $45,000-80,00+

Please email resume to primehockeymn@gmail.com