

New England College – Men’s Graduate Assistant

New England College, member of the New England Hockey Conference (NEHC), has an opening for the position of Graduate Assistant Hockey Coach. Responsibilities include recruiting and evaluating of potential student-athletes, game and practice preparation, video analysis, conditioning, and other duties as assigned. This is an excellent opportunity for a person wishing to pursue a career in college coaching.

Qualifications include a minimum of a bachelor's degree and the ability to gain admission to the New England College graduate program. In addition, the candidate must possess a strong knowledge of the game of hockey, playing or coaching experience at the college level or equivalent, effective organizational and communication skills and the ability to represent the philosophy and educational goals of New England College. New England College offers the ideal candidate a competitive Graduate Assistant package which includes tuition, room and board.

Qualified applicants should electronically submit a cover letter, current resume and list of 3 references with email and telephone contacts to Tom Carroll, Head Hockey Coach, New England College at tcarroll@nec.edu