

Northeast Generals NAHL/NA3HL- Regional Scouts

The Northeast Generals members of the NAHL (North American Hockey League) and NA3HL (North American 3 Hockey League) are looking for Regional Scouts.

Interested candidates will be responsible for watching hockey players in their area and identifying players that can help either the NAHL or the NA3HL team.

Responsibilities include writing reports about players, understanding our teams needs and creating spreadsheets to aide the staff in identifying players that can help either team.

Additionally, help filling main camp and helping the Front Office during the season.

This is a volunteer position with a chance to make revenue based upon performance.

Interested parties should email coach@northeastgenerals.com.
