

School: Dakota College at Bottineau (www.dakotacollege.edu)
City: Bottineau, North Dakota
Position: Assistant Coach
Position Type: Part-time
Organization: Lumberjack Men's Hockey – ACHA

Description:

Responsibilities include assisting the head coach with recruiting, practice, scouting, game day planning, team workouts, organizational planning, player/personnel management, and other duties relative to the hockey program.

Minimum qualifications include a strong background and experience in hockey playing/coaching, ability to represent DCB in a professional manner, valid driver's license, and good interpersonal skills. Preferred qualifications are prior playing/coaching experience at the junior or college level, good communication skills, and is a team player.

Salary: This is an entry level position and pay is $5000 per school year. Housing may be provided. Other employment may be available in the community.

Applicant Information: Please contact head men's coach Travis Rybchinski at travis.rybchinski@dakotacollege.edu for more information or to send resume.