

UCLA Men's Club Ice Hockey Head and Assistant Coach Positions

Location:

The Cube Ice Arena in Santa Clarita, California

- Approximately 30 minutes away from UCLA Campus

Compensation:

Both head and assistant coaches will be paid between $5,000 and $6,000

Job Descriptions:

The head and assistant coach positions for UCLA Men's Club Ice Hockey have very similar duties. We practice as a team twice a week on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9:30-10:45 from the start of our season in September to the end in February/March. The team plays 1-2 games per weekend typically between 7 and 8 p.m. This season we will be traveling to Chicago, Berkeley, Arizona, and hopefully Regionals and Nationals in the spring.

Team Description/General Information:

The UCLA Men's Club Ice Hockey Coaching positions are excellent ways to jumpstart your coaching career, gain experience, and establish yourself in the LA Hockey community. Recently, our assistant coach accepted a coaching position at the NCAA level. All of our team's players show extreme dedication, time commitment, seriousness, and passion for everything related to our program. We are looking for a coach that will reciprocate these qualities and push us to be better players. UCLA is the number 1 rated public university in the country, and these positions are the perfect way to start building a coaching resume.
