Company Description

Keyes Institute of Ice Hockey (KIIH) and Raw Performance Training Center provide hockey skills and athletic development services. We are more than athletic trainers — we are a people development company. We challenge, encourage, and respect every one of our clients and team members and seek to provide unparalleled growth and development opportunities.

Why Work For US

KIIH provides an opportunity to impact the lives of motivated athletes by helping them hone their athletic skills and become the best people they can be. We take pride in establishing long-term relationships focused on assisting skaters to achieve their goals and dreams. Along the way, we try to have as much fun as possible.
