

Hiram College invites applications for the position of Head Women's Ice Hockey Coach. Hiram College is a private liberal arts institution located in northeast Ohio. The College is a member of the Presidents Athletic Conference and NCAA Division III.

Hiram College, established in 1850 as the Western Reserve Eclectic Institute, is a nationally respected private residential liberal arts college located 30 miles from Cleveland in the historic Western Reserve region of Ohio. At Hiram, close student-faculty interaction and innovation is routine. The College's distinctive academic calendar, the Hiram Plan, offers students the opportunity each semester for a three-week intensive course, study abroad/away program, internship, or research experience.

The Head Women's Ice Hockey Coach position is a full-time, 12-month staff position which reports to the Director of Athletics. The head coach is responsible for all aspects of the women's ice hockey program, to include: creating and communicating the vision of a program seeking to reach unprecedented levels of success, attracting and retaining a highly supportive staff for assistance with implementation of the program vision, successfully organizing and implementing a comprehensive recruiting and retention plan, integrating the program into the campus community, developing a vibrant summer camp program, supervising practice and managing games, management of program budget, fundraising to support the program, and supporting student-athlete success in all areas of the student experience.

The Head Women's Ice Hockey Coach will embrace the responsibility of building a program respected for its commitment to the mission and core values of Hiram College, while representing the program in accordance with NCAA and institutional rules and regulations. Additional duties may include administrative roles, campus committee involvement and other duties as assigned. A Master's Degree is preferred, while a Bachelor's Degree is required.

Qualified candidates are encouraged to send a letter of application, resume, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three professional references to HR@Hiram.edu. Review of applicants will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
