

Clarkson Women's Hockey is looking to add a Graduate Assistant to help support our championship-driven Division I program. We are seeking a motivated individual with a strong hockey background to assist in game tagging, video operations, and daily team functions.

Clarkson University is a nationally ranked research institution and the university of choice for more than 3,400 high-achieving undergraduate and graduate students who go on to launch remarkably successful careers.

The Department of Athletics at Clarkson University, a Division I member of the ECAC Hockey, is seeking a Video Coordinator Graduate Assistant for Women's Hockey. This position includes a $10,000 stipend plus tuition, contingent upon acceptance into a Clarkson graduate program.

Responsibilities include (but are not limited to):

- Managing and organizing video using XOS Digital software
- Tagging pre-scout, in-game, and post-game video based on coaching staff needs
- Ensuring compliance with all league policies regarding video upload and sharing
- Assisting with analytical breakdown of practices and games
- Supporting daily operations, including travel coordination (hotels, meals, logistics)
- Adhering to all Clarkson University, ECAC, and NCAA rules and protocols

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree required
- Experience with video breakdown and tagging required
- Experience with collegiate hockey, and 3+ years of video analysis preferred

Application Process:

Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Please submit a cover letter and resume to Matt Desrosiers at mdesrosi@clarkson.edu.

Clarkson University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer and actively seeks applications from minorities, women, and individuals with disabilities.